

Chandra Brown

As executive director, Chandra Brown administers mission driven programs to southwest Alabama through Lifelines Counseling Services. Named to the position in 2005, she is responsible for strategies that deliver the Family Counseling Center, Consumer Credit Counseling Service, Rape Crisis Center and Helpline/United Way 211 programs to the community.

Ms. Brown served previously as the Division Manager of Outreach and Education for Lifelines. Before that, She also served as the Executive Director of CONTACT Mobile, Inc., where she led agency management for the Helpline and Rape Crisis Center. Ms. Brown has more than 15 years of nonprofit management experience spanning a variety of roles – from volunteer to board member.

Ms. Brown received an MS in community counseling from the University of South Alabama and a bachelor of science degree in psychology from Xavier University in New Orleans. Ms. Brown has been a peer reviewer for the Council on Accreditation for Children and Families since 2005 and is a certified trainer for the Standards of Excellence. She is also a member of the board of directors for Housing First, the Friends of the African American Heritage Trail and a member of the Junior League of Mobile, Inc.

